Definition

A critical incident is defined as a sudden, unexpected and/or tragic event or sequence of events affecting students, personnel or property, requiring immediate responsive action which overwhelms the school's normal coping mechanism. It may relate directly to the safety of the school community or may involve an incident beyond the school premises.

A critical incident may occur during the school day, before or after school hours, during school holidays or on a school trip.

Examples of a critical incident might be:

- the death of a member of the school community, through sudden death, accident, suicide or terminal illness
- a serious accident or tragedy in the school community
- a positive case of COVID-19
- a traffic accident involving a student or staff member
- a school fire, flood or an explosion in the laboratory
- the disappearance of a member of the school community
- a physical attack on a staff member or student
- an illness within the school or the local community
- severe weather requiring closure of the school
- intrusion into the school
- civil disturbances

Britannica International School, Shanghai recognises that occurrences which cannot be foreseen or considered may arise. Therefore, there cannot be a separate written plan to cover every possible emergency. Core staff training includes regular discussions of the steps to be taken in the more common emergencies, including a deliberate act of violence, fire, destruction, serious vandalism or public health threats.

Aims

- to provide support to all students and staff affected by the incident
- to minimise educational and administrative disruption within school
- to resume the normal running of the school in the shortest possible time
- to maintain the normal running of the school

Objectives

- to ensure that prompt and proportionate action is taken
- to ensure the welfare of all members of the school community
- to ensure that the school responds sensitively, consistently and effectively
- to have in place a Critical Incident Management Team, the membership of which is known to all relevant parties

- to have in place a Critical Incident Management Plan, the details of which are familiar to all relevant parties

Receiving the Alert

The alert may come from:

- staff members
- parents and/or students
- the police
- the media
- members of the public

Role of Person Who Receives the Alert

The person who receives the alert should be prepared to ask for as much information as possible including:

- What has happened?
- Have the emergency services been informed/are they attending?
- Exact location and any access problems if the person is not on site
- Casualties
- Actions taken so far
- Name/contact at the site if the person is not on site
- What assistance is needed?
